France During World War II: The Nazi Occupation

The Onset of Occupation and Its Impact on French Society

When Nazi Germany invaded France in 1940, the country was plunged into chaos. The occupation divided France into occupied and Vichy-controlled zones, disrupting daily life and threatening cultural institutions, including the wine industry. The Nazis viewed French wine as a strategic resource, both economically and culturally, and their policies aimed at exploiting and controlling local production.

The Role of the Nazis in French Wine Production and Trade

The German authorities sought to commandeer French wine for their own use and export. They imposed quotas and requisitions, often taking significant portions of harvests.
